Principal's Message this week

Valued Students

Kory Verduzco & Joshua Nickings

Hard Work

Kory and Joshua never miss an opportunity to "go the extra mile." When there's work to be done, these two men can be counted on to take responsibility for that which needs to be done. Wash the lunch tables? No problem. Sweep the lodge floor on Angel Island?

They've got it. Is there someone who needs extra help with a special work project? Count on them. They perform their class jobs diligently and leave the environment around them in better condition than the way they found it. We appreciate Joshua and Kory!
