Valued Students

5th Grade

The 5th Graders are responsible for getting their homework done, and take responsibility for their actions. Not only can they be counted upon to admit when they have made mistakes, but they also perform spontaneous positive acts such as cleaning the lunch tables or sweeping the classroom floor. Responsible students like these make teachers' work even more rewarding!

Parent Education Opportunities

"Building Your Child's Self-Esteem and Personal Power"

Tuesday, April 4th. 5:00-6:30 pm

At the Belle Haven Child Development Center.

Learn how children develop positive and healthy relationships, understand the states of social and emotional development, and how to develop your child's empathy and social skills.

The workshop is free to attend and child care can be provided with a reservation.

"Developmental Milestones of Early Childhood, Ages 0-6"

Wednesday, April 19th. 6:30-8:00 pm.
