

Student Empowerment Back to School Kick off Symposium

Roadrunners Sports Club
presents guest speaker
David Watts for a free educational symposium!

September 30, 2017
6-7:30pm
Beechwood School Auditorium
50 Terminal Ave
Menlo Park, CA 94025

This event will give students and parents some strategies for success in the classroom by preparing students mindsets for academic excellence. Topics covered include test taking skills, GPA and SAT requirements, the importance of building relationships with your teachers, college application processes and more!

This is the first session of three-part series with David Watts who will lead and engage students in a discussion about their educational future and how they can begin to take ownership of it.
