Youth Voices: Breaking Down Barriers in Teen Mental Health

January 21st, 6:30 pm - 8:00 pm FREE

Location: CHC

650 Clark Way, Palo Alto, CA 94304

Some teens are struggling with mental health issues, many others watch friends navigate mental health treatment, and some have even lost loved ones to suicide. Mental health is a growing concern in our nation. It's time we break down any barriers to talking about it and crush the stigma associated with it. Join the teens of CHC's Teen Wellness Committee for a conversation about mental health and how to talk about it with your child, friends and teachers.

To register for this class go to www.chconline.org

No childcare for this classes*

Please check the Parents Board in the office for classes offered at Beechwood and other community locations.
